

I would ask that the FCC not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since my family signed up for Indiana's program the number of unsolicited calls has dropped drastically. We used to get several calls a week soliciting and now I cannot say when the last one we received was. Th Indiana Telephone Privacy law has defintiely helped our family.

Thank you for your consideration of my comments.